

Governor McAuliffe Announces Talent Solutions Grant Competition for Economic Development

Governor Terry McAuliffe has announced that the Governor's Office, in partnership with the Virginia Employment Commission (VEC), will be offering the Commonwealth's first competitive grants designed to help close the skills gap in key industry sectors of critical importance to the Virginia economy and reward and encourage employer-led talent development solutions. These state grants will be matched by private funds and used to provide job training and develop vital workplace skills for prospective and existing employees.
